

Bachelor of Arts (B.A)

Three-year B. A. Programme is divided into six semesters, each year having two semesters.

FYBA (Sem I & II)

Core Arts Courses :

A student shall write one paper in each semester for any three courses. A student shall choose one course each from the following options:

- a. Marathi Literature/ Sociology
- b. Economics/ History
- c. Political Science/ English Literature

Language Course

A student shall write one paper in each semester for the following course.

- a. Hindi Language

Skill Based Course

A student shall write one paper in each semester for the following course.

- a. Communication Skills

Foundation Course

A student shall write one paper in each semester.

SYBA (Sem II & IV)

Core Arts Courses:

A student shall write two papers in each semester for three courses studied at FYBA.

Applied Component Course

A student shall write one paper in each semester for any one of the following courses.

- a. Elementary Quantitative Techniques
- b. Travel and Tourism

Foundation Course

A student shall write one paper in each semester.

TYBA (Sem V & VI)

6-Units

A student shall write two compulsory papers and four special papers in each semester for any one of the following core courses as opted for at SY level.

- a. Economics b. Political Science

3-Units

A student shall write two compulsory papers and one special paper in each semester for any two of the following core courses as opted for at SY level.

- a. Marathi Literature
- b. Sociology
- c. Economics
- d. History
- e. Political Science
- f. English Literature

Note : All the above combinations will be offered subject to the minimum number of students available as prescribed by the statutory authority.